News and Announcements

Climate Justice for Africa and the Diaspora

gsjoko.net

Check out a note written by Prof. Greg Jenkins about Dr. Warren Washington, who passed away recently. His contribution to advance our understanding of climate science was unparalleled. His contribution to HBCUs, especially Howard University, inspired many students and faculty members. He was a legacy scientist in our field.

NCAS-M Represented at 2024 NDISTEM Conference

ncas-m.org

NDISTEM is the largest multidisciplinary and multicultural STEM diversity event in the country, and is hosted by SACNAS (Society for Advancement of Chicanos/Hispanics & Native Americans in Science). Over the course of the event, college-level professional attendees were immersed in cutting-edge STEM research, professional development sessions.

Exciting Accomplishment for Cassandra Jean

www.instagram.com

NCAS-M alumni Cassandra Jean was selected to be a participating author in the next White House National Climate Assessment in 2027. The National Climate Assessment is the US Government’s preeminent report on climate change impacts, risks, and responses. It is a congressionally mandated interagency effort that provides the scientific foundation to support informed decision-making.

13th NOAA Enterprise Data Management Workshop

globalocean.noaa.gov

This fully virtual event, themed “Bridging the Gap: Ensuring Seamless Data Flow from Acquisition to Access,” aims to explore the multifaceted aspects of NOAA data management and its impact on advancing scientific understanding and societal outcomes.

NCAS-M Connection Discord Server

ncas-m.org

Adam Deitsch has set up a “NCAS-M Connection” Discord server for fellows. Fellows are welcome to join and stay connected (this is not a requirement).
